City of Seattle
Mayor Jenny A. Durkan

Innovation Advisory Council | July 24, 2020, 10-11am

| Time | Topic & Outcome | Lead |
|---|---|---|
| 10:00 – 10:05 | WelcomeOutcome: Ground in the purpose of today's event | DM Ranganathan |
| 10:05 – 10:25 | How might IAC support BIPOC communities?Outcome: Advance the IAC's commitment to Race and Social Justice.• What is the vision for how the Mayor would like the IAC to support BIPOC communities?• How have Co-Chairs been engaging on this topic?• Where have IAC members seen these partnerships work well? What would you want the Mayor to consider in building out this plan? How can the IAC have the greatest impact? | DM RanganathanSandy AnurasAndrew Beers |
| 10:30 – 11:55 | Project Final Presentations• Parking Analytics (Mary Catherine Snyder, SDOT)• Food Rescue (Liz Fikejs, SPU)• Racial Equity Lab (Shuxuan Zhou, OCR)• Affordable Seattle (Leah Tivoli, IP)• Creative Economy Collaboration (Alex Rose, ARTS) | Leah TivoliCity PMs |
| 11:55 – 12:00 | ClosingOutcome: Wrap up the day | Tina Walha |

Sandy Anuras, VP of Technology will be stepping in as the new Expedia co-Chair. Sandy is a downtown resident who is passionate about Seattle being a world-class city in which residents can live, work, and play.

Sandy is a product and technology executive with deep experience in building scalable, high-performance teams. She is currently the VP of Product and Technology for Global Marketing at Expedia Group. Sandy previously served as the VP Technology at Blokable, where she brought her broad engineering and operations experience together to lead development of the BlokSense Insights Dashboard, bringing integrated hardware and software to scalable housing creation and operations.