

Office of Police Accountability 2024 Youth Art Contest!

The Office of Police Accountability (OPA) is accepting art submissions from youth ages 18 and under to be featured in its 2023 annual report! We're inviting young artists to showcase their creativity and talent by expressing what "meaningful police oversight" looks like. Youth may paint, draw, illustrate, or use mixed media. Submissions must be scanned, emailed or mailed, and received by OPA by April 1, 2024. The first-place winner will receive a Samsung Galaxy Tab S6 Lite with S Pen or a prize of equal monetary value of $250 and have their art featured in OPA's annual report for 2023 and monthly newsletter. Runners-up may also be featured in OPA's annual report for 2023 and newsletter, social media, and community outreach materials.

Details

- First-prize winner receives:
 - Samsung Galaxy Tab S6 Lite with S Pen or a prize of equal monetary value of $250.
 - And will be featured in OPA's annual report for 2023 and monthly newsletter!
- Runners-up will be showcased in OPA's annual report for 2023 and monthly newsletter, social media, and community outreach materials.
- The contest is open to elementary, middle, and high school students living or attending school in Seattle 18 years old and under.
- Contest requires a signed permission slip by parent or guardian approval to participate. If age 18, you may sign for yourself. (See next page).
- Artwork must be original.
- Submissions must be no larger than 8.5x11 in. and scanned as hi-resolution JPEG, PNG, or PDF files.
- Submitting art in the contest grants OPA artwork/copyright in full; artwork will be publicly attributed to the artist.
- Artwork will be unaltered and publicly attributed to the artist, with their age and grade level.

How to Submit

- Students should include their name, grade, school, and their parent or guardian's name and contact information. Must attach a completed entry form, regardless of submission method.
- Artwork can be scanned & emailed to OPA's project manager: amanda.defisher@seattle.gov or mailed to:
Attn: Amanda DeFisher
Office of Police Accountability
PO Box 34986
Seattle, WA, 98124
- Mailed artwork will not be returned. Artwork must be received by April 1, 2024.
- Submitted artwork will be considered a public record and may be subject to public disclosure. For more information, see the Public Records Act, RCW Chapter 42.56. To learn more about how we manage your information, see our Privacy Statement.
- For questions, please contact: amanda.defisher@seattle.gov.

Office of Police Accountability 2024 Youth Art Contest Permission Form

The Office of Police Accountability (OPA) is accepting art submissions from youth ages 18 and under to be featured in its annual report for 2023! We're inviting young artists to showcase their creativity and talent by expressing what "meaningful police oversight" looks like. Youth may paint, draw, illustrate, or use mixed media. Submissions must be scanned, emailed or mailed, and received by OPA by April 1, 2024. The first-place winner will receive a Samsung Galaxy Tab S6 Lite with S Pen or a prize of equal monetary value of $250 and have their art featured in OPA's annual report for 2023 and monthly newsletter. Runners-up may also be featured in OPA's annual report and newsletter.

Submitting art in the contest grants OPA artwork/copyright in full; artwork will be publicly attributed to the artist.

Full Name of Child: _____

Date of Birth: _____ Age: _____

Mailing Address: _____

School Name: _____ Grade: _____

I acknowledge that I am the parent or guardian of the above-named child and am permitting them to enter the 2024 OPA Youth Art Contest. I also acknowledge that this submission is the above-named child's original work and consent to the use of the above-named child's first name, artwork, school, and grade on promotional items without further permission, compensation, or approval. All notifications regarding the contest, including the announcement of winners, will be sent to the above-named child's parent or guardian at the email or mailing address listed below.

Parent or Guardian's Printed Name: _____

If age 18, may provide your own name.

Parent or Guardian's Signature: _____

If age 18, may sign for self.

Parent or Guardian's Address (email or mailing): _____

If age 18, may include your own email or mailing address.

Date: _____

This completed form must accompany the entry to be considered eligible for the prize. Mailed artwork will not be returned.

Submitted artwork will be considered a public record and may be subject to public disclosure. For more information, see the Public Records Act, RCW Chapter 42.56. To learn more about how we manage your information, see our Privacy Statement.

For questions, please contact: amanda.defisher@seattle.gov.