

Crime Prevention Coordinators

Crime Prevention Coordinators (CPCs) are experts in crime prevention techniques. Please contact us about crime prevention tips, get involved or start a Block Watch group, request their presence at an upcoming community meeting or discuss ongoing concerns in your neighborhood.

Find Your Precinct CPC :

seattle.gov/crime-prevention

Reporting

Always call 9-1-1 for

- A police, fire, or medical emergency.
- A serious situation which poses a danger to life, property, or both.
- A serious crime such as robbery, domestic violence, or sexual assault.
- A downed power line.
- For language assistance when reporting an emergency, call 911 and state the language you need, to be connected with a translator
For Example : state Spanish, or Vietnamese

Learn more and sign up for the Smart911 program to help Call Takers have access to helpful information about you, your family and your home, including medical conditions, access information and more at Smart911.com

For non-emergency situations

- Past Crimes: Report past crimes (incidents not in progress) including theft, burglaries, fraud, property damage, nuisance, and lost property by calling (206) 625-5011, or report online with the Seattle Police Department.
- Auto: If your vehicle is stolen, try (206) 625-5011. If no answer, call 9-1-1 even if the theft was in the past. Report motor vehicle collisions with the Washington State Patrol website, link accessible at QR code below.
- Power Outage: Call Seattle City Light (206) 684-3000. View the current outage map, link accessible at QR code below.
- Social Services: Call 211 for crisis intervention, utility assistance, food, housing, health, child care, after school programs, elder care, and more.
- Mental Health: Call, text, or chat 988 to reach the 988 Suicide & Crisis Lifeline. The 988 Lifeline is confidential, free, and available 24/7/365.
- Other City Issues: To report issues with animals, dumping, encampments, infrastructure, and other non-emergencies call Customer Service Bureau at (206) 684-2489, use the "Find It, Fix It" app, or use the Customer Service Bureau website to file a request for a wide range of services.
- Parking Enforcement: Call (206) 386-9012.

Area Wide Emergencies

- In the case of an area-wide emergency, do not use your telephone for the first few hours following the event unless you have a life-threatening emergency and need to call 9-1-1.

Other helpful online resources:

www.seattle.gov/police/cpc-qr-resources

SPD Crime Prevention

SEATTLE POLICE FOUNDATION
Partnership for a Safe Seattle

6/2024 V.4