

SEATTLE POLICE DEPARTMENT

invites you to a community training addressing how police officers continue the discussion on the City of Seattle's Race and Social Justice Initiative. The community training uses the documentary, "Race: The Power of an Illusion."

In partnership with the Community Police Commission, the Filipino Community of Seattle, the Seattle Race and Social Justice Initiative / Office for Civil Rights, and the Seattle Police Department

Here are some comments from community members who have attended the training:

"I appreciated the interaction from the police officers. I think it's a good start to talk about the issues."

"Direct and powerful approach to the topic and relevant to everyone, regardless of prior training in race or criminal justice matters."

"I appreciated being able to hear from police officers. There needs to be more conversations between communities of color and police officers assigned to work in them."
